

THE BULLETIN.

OFFICE—Second Street, Opposite
Cadwallader's Photograph Gallery.

MAYSVILLE, THURSDAY, JULY 31

Those who receive a copy of the Dollar Weekly Bulletin, and wishing to subscribe will receive it regularly by remitting ONE DOLLAR.

Our terms invariably in advance.

The Sixteenth Kentucky Regiment, Col. CHADDOCK, left Cincinnati a few days ago for Caseyville, Ky.

We are indebted to Hon. L. W. POWELL and Hon. S. S. COX, for valuable Public Documents.

MAYSVILLE FEMALE INSTITUTE.—It gives us pleasure to be able to state that this very superior Institution is still increasing in popularity and usefulness. Its most excellent and accomplished Principal is all that an intelligent public could desire, and the progress made by those under her charge has been such as to give the utmost satisfaction to both parents and pupils. The course of study in this Institute embraces all the branches which are usually taught in the best Institutions of the country. Parents having daughters to educate will do well to confide them to the care of Miss J. R. PARKER, who is thoroughly competent to do justice to all who may be committed to her charge. Such Seminaries of learning should be liberally encouraged, and we always take pleasure in lending the influence of our circulation to their advancement.

A little daughter of BRYAN DUNN, was run over by a Meat wagon, near Gurney's Pork House and very severely injured.

We return our thanks to Messrs. GEO. LLOYD and PAUL COBBY, Agents at Cincinnati, Kansas, for the Overland Stage Line to Pike's Peak and Salt Lake City, for late packages of California papers.

The Union Agricultural Society of Mason and Bracken Counties, will hold their Ninth Annual Exhibition, on the Fair Grounds, near Germantown, commencing on Tuesday the 23rd of September, and will continue for four days. We notice among the extra premiums, that three Silver Pitchers will be awarded by the committee for the best Stallion, Harness and Saddle Horses.—All owners of stock and exhibitors of articles will do well to examine their programme for the occasion.

Nearly all the Candidates who have been in opposition to the union ticket, in different counties of the State, have declined in accordance with the order Gen. Boyle which will be found in another column.

Mr. G. W. EDWARDS, Agent for Morrison & Bell's Nursery, Portsmouth, made us a present, yesterday morning, of a specimen of their "Bough Sweet," and "Early Joe" Apples, they were decidedly the most luscious fruit of the kind we have seen this season.

FOUND.—In this city, on the Evening of the 19th of June, a GOLD BRACELET—which the owner can have by calling at Mrs. E. J. WROTON'S proving property, and paying charges.

Beauregard is reported to be very sick, by the Mobile papers.

The weather was very hot yesterday, the thermometer standing in the nineties.

The guerrillas are still at work in some portions of Kentucky, especially about Henderson. The country is being scoured for them.

Brigadier General Benj. F. Roberts, has been assigned to duty at General Pope's Headquarters as Chief of Cavalry.

Gov. Magoffin has issued a proclamation stating that the exigencies of the times, in his opinion, demand a call for an extra session of the Legislature. Thursday the 14th day of August, next, is the day appointed for the meeting of the session. We hope that its acts and deliberations may be conducted with wisdom, and that good may result from the meeting.

The Treasury Department has not yet fully decided how to transmute postage stamps into a circulating medium. Some plan will be adopted by which those of different values may be combined so as to represent the same sums as the various coins. They will be printed upon thicker paper than the stamps used at the Postoffices.

Brigham Young, Jr., son of the Prophet of Salt Lake City, has arrived in Philadelphia. He is en route for Europe, and will sail in the early part of next week.

It is expected that the Treasury notes of small denominations, ones, twos, and threes, will be ready on or before the 1st of August. They will be issued as fast as possible.

Out of one hundred wealthy young men of Warrenton, Faquier county, Va., who enlisted in the rebel army a little more than a year ago, only eleven survive.

SOLDIERS ON FURLOUGH.—It is estimated that there are now on furlough 50,000 enlisted men, most of whom are in a condition to rejoin their regiments.

SHINPLASTERS.—Ninety-two different kinds of shinplasters are already circulating in New York city.

A number of prominent Buffalo merchants advertise that they will receive and pay out silver half-dollars at 56 cents quarters at 28; dimes at 11; half-dimes at 5; and gold at the current rates.

General Butler seems to have a peculiar faculty for finding the swords of United States officers. The other day a detective was sent to search a stable where it was understood that arms, belonging to a recaptured son of ex-President Tyler, were concealed. Among a variety of weapons found under the floor of the stable was the elegant sword presented to "Old Rough and Ready" by the State of Kentucky. It will be sent to Gen. Taylor, Commissary General of the United States army, and a brother of the gallant hero of the Mexican war.

John Decker, John Carlisle, Joseph Carlisle, Wheeler Winter, John B. Butler, and J. M. Adams were released from the military prison, in Louisville, on Saturday, upon giving bond and taking the oath of allegiance.

The Silver Moon, from Memphis, arrived yesterday morning, at Cincinnati, with a full load of Southern products, and crowded with passengers.

On Saturday evening last General Lucius Desha, Ex-Mayor Samuel January, M. Garrett, Rev. Mr. Smiley, and two other citizens of Cincinnati, came into Covington under guard as military prisoners, and were at once sent to the Newport Barracks.

Two cavalry regiments, for the express purpose of suppressing guerrillas in Kentucky, are to be raised by the Legislature when it assembles in August.

The following bridges on the Kentucky Central Railroad were burned by Morgan's men while on the recent raid: Keller's bridge, one and a half miles this side of Cincinnati; Kimbrough's bridge, about the same distance beyond Cincinnati; the bridge over the Elkhorn, six miles this side of Lexington; and another bridge, a few miles beyond Paris. The two latter are bridges of only one span, and can soon be rebuilt; the bridge at Keller's and the one at Kimbrough's were the most important ones on the road, and several weeks will elapse before they can be rebuilt.—Temporary bridges will be erected, however, in a few days, so that the road will be in running order again in a very short time. Cincinnati Journal.

THE PRESIDENT'S VIEWS.—We clip the following from the Cincinnati Times.

Col. John W. Forney, Secretary of the United States Senate, in addressing the People's State Convention at Harrodsburg, last Thursday, is thus reported:

He announced that President Lincoln had told him, before leaving Washington, that therefore his policy should be as stringent as the most enthusiastic could desire.—[Loud applause.] That hereafter there will be no restriction in the employment of all men in putting down the rebellion. [Long and loud applause.] No more doubting about the emancipation of Rebel property.—[Applause.] No longer need the Northern people be frightened with the cry of Negro Equality and Emancipation. [Applause.] He thought it proper to put arms in their hands to save the lives of the whites. [Applause.] He thought we might as well terminate the war to-day, if it was not to be fought with the aid of the colored people of the South. [Applause.] Gen. Washington, in the Revolutionary war, used them, and at the battle of Red Bank, in 1777, near Philadelphia, a Rhode Island regiment of blacks turned the fortunes of the day.

BRITISH SYMPATHY.—The Mobile Register describes a recent visit of the British and French Consuls at Mobile, accompanied by a few friends, to the British ship of war Rinaldo, lying off that port. The party went out under a flag of truce. The Register says: "The ship had left New Orleans the day before, and the news was prevalent when she left that McClellan had taken Richmond and 50,000 Confederate prisoners. They were evidently not sorry to learn on board that, on the contrary, Mac had been driven back thirty miles, and narrowly escaped being taken himself. Indeed, there was no mistaking the sympathies of the officers and men, which was betrayed by looks and actions, where words could not be used. When going from one ship to another, and one of the party spoke to the officer of the Confederate successes, the crew, overhearing, seemed scarcely able to restrain a cheer. But discipline prevailed, and they only looked their satisfaction." Richmond Whig.

A farmer, a lawyer, or a doctor, may be a very respectable individual, but a hotel-keeper is a whole host.

"Well, John," said a doctor to a lad whose mother he had been attending during her illness, "how is your mother?" "She's dead, I thank you, sir!"

NOTICE!

TO THE TAX-PAYERS OF MASON

COUNTY!!

By a recent act of the Legislature it is made my duty, immediately after the 1st of June to proceed with the Collection of the public Revenue as speedily as possible. By the same act it is made my duty to report, at the July, September and November County Courts, the amount of taxes collected and pay the same over to the Auditor. I am authorized under said act to notify the Tax-Payers by public notice stuck up at the Court house door, and in the different Precincts or districts of the County, that on certain days between the 1st of September, and the 15th of October, I, or my deputies, will attend at the place of holding election in such districts and receive their taxes. It is made the duty of the tax-payers to attend on such days and pay the same. If this is not done after that date they will have to pay the same at the Court-house; and if not done there within the time prescribed by law, ten per cent,
